Barber's Great Society in Focus

Foreword

"Parting is such sweet sorrow." With this thought prevailing in our minds, the yearbook staff of Barber has attempted since early March 1965 to compile a yearbook that would serve to arouse, always, fond memories of the years the class spent at Barber High.

From our first day on the campus, stretching seemingly everlasting to our day of graduation, we have acquired a wealth of memories that shall ever remain – cheering at athletic affairs, walking up and down the long narrow halls, club activities, programs in the auditorium, rushing to the cafeteria, Monday night at the movies, Junior-Senior Prom and always the cramming session before an exam or an important report was to be submitted. All of these have made contributions to making us – the students – more adaptable as well as more flexible to step from the Great Society of J. J. Barber to the Great Society of the community, of the state, of the nation and of the world. With the guidance we have received from our faithful teachers, backed by the co-operation of our loving, devoted parents, we have gained an insight of what extends beyond the doors of Barber.

With a background such as this, we the Senior Class of 1966, feeling that we will be able to meet the challenge of a world in transformation, depart with affectionate memories – remembering never to forget the source of these memories of our high school home – John Thomas Barber.

Now to refresh your memory of this momentous year, we present to you Barber's Great Society in Focus – the 1966 Warrior.

MRS. JANARAH W. JONES

MRS. E. FRAZELLE FIELDS

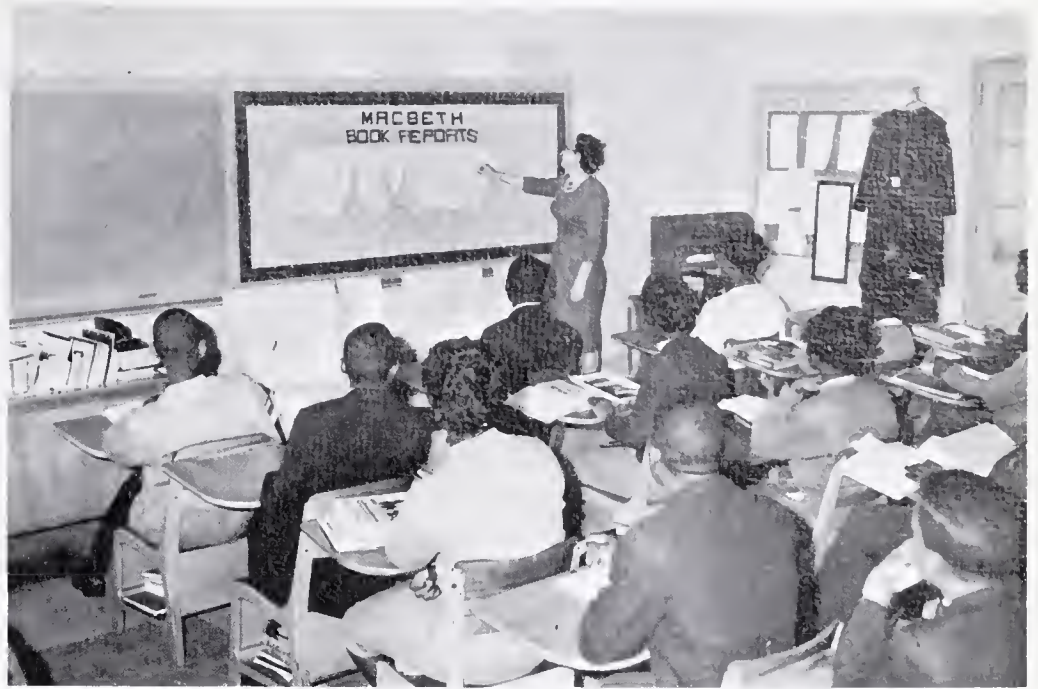

MR. PRINCE DAVIS

Our advisors are very busy people. They live fully balanced lives - meeting their responsibilities in all area - the home, school, church and other worthwhile community activities. They had a full scheduled day of teaching, yet found time, through the years of our high school, to work patiently with us in the many class projects we sponsored.

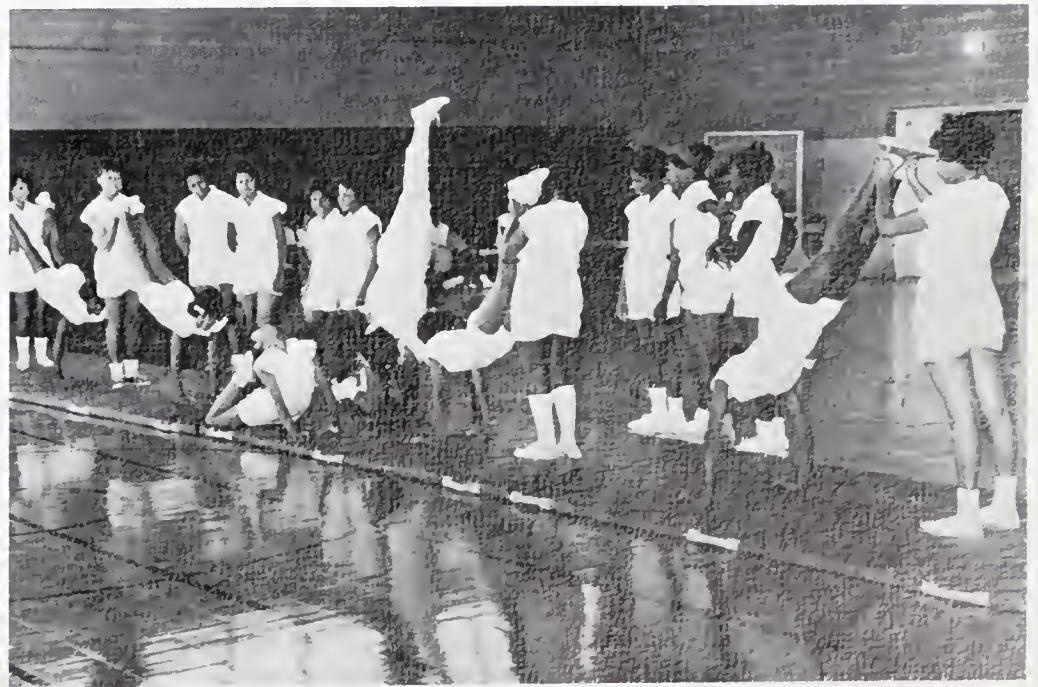

To you Mrs. E. F. Fields, Mrs. J. W. Jones and Mr. P. Davis, for your devotion and concern for our welfare, for your increasing work in the functions of our class, for your pleasant temperament, for your willingness to give a second chance, for your ability to see the best in us and strive to develop that best, and for capable leadership, we thank you. Our sincere gratitude goes to you for being what you are - leaders who guide without offending. Because of all of these admirable qualities we proudly dedicate our 1966 Warrior to you.

Appreciation

Mrs. M. S. Faison, in the run of a day, is a full-time teacher of Senior English. After a full daily schedule in the English classes, she has found time to advise the Yearbook Staff in the technicalities involved in putting a yearbook together.

The Yearbook Staff of 1966 is attempting to show its appreciation and gratitude to you Mrs. Faison for your unselfish giving of time and energy as Advisor of the Warrior, for your loyalty and guidance through the long hours of tedious work, and for your encouragement during moments of despair. We realize that you have been most helpful in making our yearbook a success. For this we thank you.

For your diligent and loyal devotion to our class through the years 1961-1965; for your untiring efforts in working with us on fund raising projects; for your encouraging advice at all times; for the inspiration you have given us; the Senior Class of 1966 wishes to express its wholehearted appreciation and gratitude to you, Miss E. B. Martin.

MR. G. C. FIELDS, Principal

Mrs. Ernestine H. Moore follows a busy daily schedule. She handles correspondence, arranges appointments, keeps accurate records and manages the office routine for the principal.

Principal's Message

Congratulations to this graduating class on reaching one of the very important milestones in life. In the years ahead try to keep alive your ambitions and continue to inflame your desires to learn and excel. Base your aspirations upon service to your fellowman.

I sincerely hope that this, one of the many goals that you will achieve, will serve as a strong foundation to greater service.

May all your efforts and successes bring eternal happiness to you and those you touch.

It has been a pleasure working with you and I have benefited immensely from our mutual association.

Our Band – One of Music,

The J. T. Barber Band is one of the school's essential organizations. It represents the school in many areas, such as district and state festivals, promoting school spirit at pep rallies, football and basketball games, and participating in various annual parades.

The J. T. Barber Band is under the direction of Mr. Loyal H. Cox who is recording a number in order that the band might listen to the record and improve the weak points. He is preparing for the Band's Christmas Concert.

Melody, and Harmony

No marching band is complete without a drum major. James Milteer wins hearty applause from the spectators each time he performs.

The Marching Band demonstrates excellence and agility as they perform for the many occasions when a marching band is a Must. This occasion is the annual Homecoming.

Marilyn White, a zealous majorette leader, exemplifies the enthusiasm which prevails throughout the squad.

Majestic Scenes From

As our guest during the homecoming ceremonies, we have the queen from Pamlico Central, Miss Carolyn Fisher posing with our own queen, Miss Cora Lyons.

Our lovely Miss J. T. Barber, Miss Cora Lyons, is being crowned by Miss Janice Lancaster, Homecoming Queen, and is also being aided by the first runner-up, Miss Glennie White.

Homecoming Highlights

Miss Shelia Foye and Miss Sonnae Taylor, from left to right have been named as first and second runners-up and will make up the Queen's Court.

The reigning Homecoming Queen for the school year 1965-1966, Miss Janice Lancaster, has just been crowned by the captain of the football team, Julian Martin

In The Misty Moonlight

With youthful anticipation, some of the members of the Junior Class have assembled to check the supply order for the greatest social event of their junior year--The Prom.

The Big Night came at last. The juniors and their guests are "swinging and swaying" to the music of the Scepters.

Annual Sweetheart of the Band Contest

It has become traditional at J. T. Barber that the Band annually sponsors a "Sweetheart of the Band Contest." February being the "Heart month" the contest culminates on Valentine's Day.

The 1965 J. T. Barber Band that sponsored the 1965 Sweetheart of the Band Contest.

The 1965 Sweetheart Queen is Miss Mildred Taylor who is being crowned by Miss Janice Lancaster, the 1964 Sweetheart Queen. Holding the pillow that held the crown is George Blount. The contestants from left to right are: A. Cobbs, E. Cox, V. Bryant, V. Nixon, B. Pearsall, M. Herring, J. Lancaster, Mildred Taylor, queen seated, G. Blount, B. Blount, B. Smith, S. Taylor, J. Murphy, and B. Bryant.

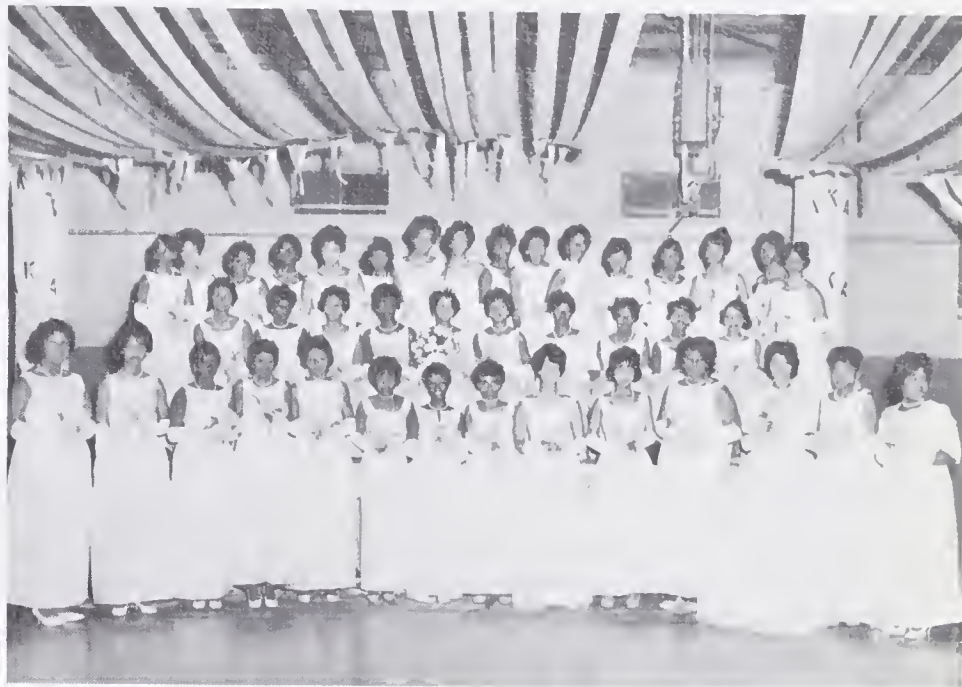

Community Books Forward to Annual Jabberwock

Lovely Miss Marie Ward reigned gracefully as queen at the annual Jabberwock sponsored by the Delta Theta Sorority.

These three lovely ladies in the Homecoming Parade are Miss J. T. Barber, Miss Cora Lyons center, Miss Glennie White, left, first runner-up, and Miss Gwendolyn George, right, second runner-up.

Nothing keeps a memory alive like a picture. Here are some that will be cherished forever of the Homecoming Parade of 1965.

The Chorus entered this very beautiful float in the parade. In the back-ground seated are Miss Joann Carty and Vance Green. Standing are Miss Beverly Blount and Larry Long.

Julian Martin, a three year varsity player on Barber's basketball and football teams won All-State this year in both sports.

Martin Makes All-State in Major Sports

Martin, the youngest in an athletic family of five boys, excelled in track and baseball also. A salute to Julian Martin and a prediction that he will be a professional player as is his brother Aaron Martin.

The Barber Football Squad . . .

Barber's Great Society is graduating these five clean cut senior members of the Warrior Team, with confidence that their years of participation in football have heightened their assurance of success in their chosen careers. They are standing from left to right, J. Martin, G. Staten, C. Bennett, and kneeling, O. Pickett, and T. White.

A Well-Balanced Team

The handshake between some of the members of the Barber Warriors and the South Ayden High School is a symbol of the fair-play that is continually stressed at Barber. Win or lose the players never forget clean sportsmanship which means friendship.

Torian Williams, deadly Barber end, snags a deciding touchdown pass from the quarterback in the closing seconds of Barber's Homecoming game.

Julian Martin, number 85, exercises a critical defensive play, preventing Barber's defeat in the season's final conference game.

Barber's '65 Track Team

Barber began track in the school year 1963-64 under the able leadership of Mr. R. K. Wilson whose major field of concentration and enjoyment is in this sport. This year the boys had to put their minds on learning the basic fundamentals of the sports.

We are pleased to say that the following year the tracksters made their school and their coach proud by displaying a great deal of fundamental knowledge, know-how and school spirit by activity and competing with the best in their district.

William Toon 1965, and Larry Boston 1966, participated in the State Track Meet. Toon gained the rank of "fastest trackster in the East".

. . . in Action

George Staten, right, won this hurdling event for Barber.

Barber bows to Wilmington in the 440 mile run.

The Warriors' tracksters began the 1965 season showing much potential and depth with starters.

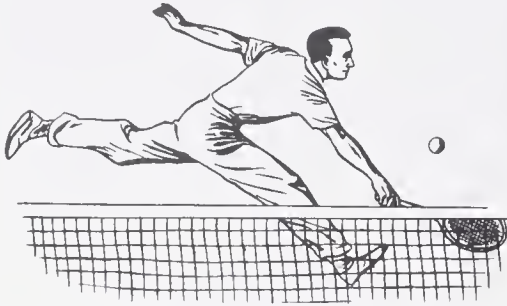

Barber ranks third in the mile relay.

Steve Thompson places fifth in the half mile run.

Tennis – An Agile and Exact Sport

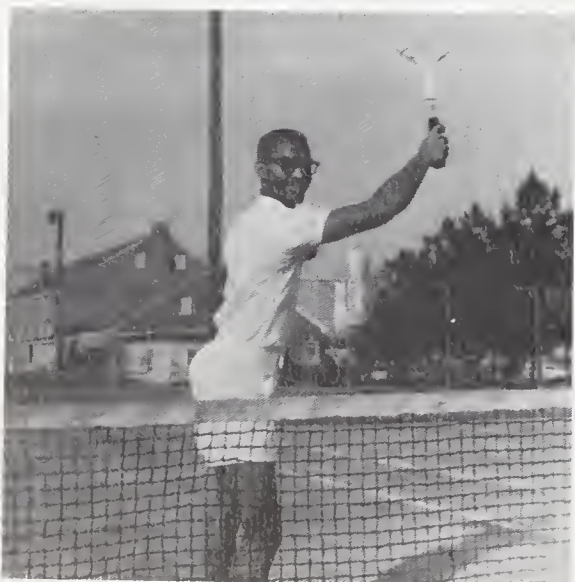

Tennis started at Barber in the school year 1964-65 with several seniors taking the spotlight. With these same boys playing this year, the Tennis Team looks forward to a successful season.

Barber's Great Society in Focus

The days and weeks passed, the clock continually ticked as the hands chased each other, and the year was gone. All that is left are memories--associated with all phases of life in the Great Society of Barber High School.

In Memoriam We Honor William Moore and Jarvis Edwards

Among the things that the class of 1966 of J. T. Barber High will always remember are the associations with two of its classmates who started with them but were plucked by the "Grim Reaper Death" before graduation.

William Moore was born February 19, 1948 to Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Moore in Craven County--the Havelock Section. He entered high school at J. T. Barber September 1962. For a brief period William was an active part of our class. In December 1962, death came to William and our Society was greatly saddened. We shall always cherish the memories of our association with William Moore.

Jarvis Edwards was the son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Calvin Edwards. He was born in New Bern, North Carolina, May 3, 1947. He entered J. T. Barber High School September of 1962. Jarvis was with us for almost three years. On May 6, 1965, death came to Jarvis and the Society moaned their loss. We shall forever remember him--quiet, alert, observant--for the many fond memories he has given us.

We the class of 1966 close this In Memoriam with some of the beautiful lines from William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis."

"So live, that when thou summons come to join
The innumerable caravan,
..... go not like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
..... approach thou grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

But Most of All J. T. B. Is People . . .

J. T. B. is people in a group

J. T. B. is people united in their goal to obtain Quality Education.

In this empty hall as well as other areas of our Alma Mater, we studied, we laughed, we cried, we assembled. There was so much to do, there is so much to remember. Each of us who performed the slightest task contributed to the biggest spirit a school can have – The Spirit of Co-operation.

J. T. B. is people separate in their individual lives.

The Yearbook Staff has strived to present an all-around view of J. T. Barber. We hope you like our book. Thanks to everyone who made it possible.
